Michael Dooher aged 19

BEATEN TO DEATH BY ASIAN THUGS.

Editorial

DECEMBER 1995

If the BNP, the NF or any British nationalist group organised an event which ended with one shooting, nine stabbings, 400 people injured of which 153 needed hospital treatment, and fifty-one people arrested, then I feel sure that there would by demands from all quarters to ban similar future events. Yet these were the police statistics for this year's Notting Hill carnival. Not one MP or police officer has been heard demanding the banning of this event.

Could it be because the carnival organisers are black ?

Britain, amongst many western countries, has strongly condemned the treatment of political dissidents and political prisoners in Nigeria recently. But of course Britain's record on such matters is nothing to be proud of.

Here, British patriots are attacked and physically beaten, their property damaged, dismissed from their jobs, and even evicted from their homes. Patriots who have defended their country from Marxists such as the IRA and "freedom fighters" who have fought back against multi-racialism are sentenced to long periods of detention.

When Britain gives its own citizens the right to free speech and the freedom of expression, then it will earn the right to condemn other countries for their lack of human rights.

Until then our politicians should shut up!

Hypocrits

One of the murderers of Richard Everitt has at last been brought to justice. Badrul Miah, aged 20, was sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder which the judge described as being "primarily motivated by racial hatred". A racist murder.

But where were those who normally are in the frontline for publicity when "racist murders" take place?

Where were the professional "anti-racists" from the Board of Deputies, Anti-Nazi League, YRE, SWP and the Commission for Racial Equality?

They were not interested because this time the victim was WHITE!

One Winner.

As long as the leaderships of the BNP and C18 continue to air their differences in public our sacred cause is being damaged. Reading the publications of each, one would conclude that the most important task for Nationalist Britons today is to decide who is right and who is wrong in this long running saga.

Meanwhile, the real enemies of our people, those who would destroy our Racial Identity, are laughing at the Nationalist movement tearing itself apart.

Good Work.

Thank heavens the Israeli police quickly captured the assassin of Yitzhak Rabin and established beyond doubt that the assassin was a fellow Jew.

If they had not done so could you imagine the headlines in next months Searchlight ?

Israeli Premier Murdered!
C.18 SUSPECTED!

Finally

Please let me take this opportunity to thank all those Comrades that have helped our cause throughout the year. Thanks also to our members and subscribers for their patience when our "well oiled machine" ground to a temporary halt!

Let me also wish you all a "Happy Yuletide, and a wish fulfilled New Year", and please at this very special time of the year, turn your thoughts to those Comrades in the struggle who have sacrificed their liberty for our cause. Remember our Nationalist prisoners! We all owe them a great debt!

"Happy Yuletide".

The Editor.

WHITE TEENAGER MURDERED BY ASIANS

19 year old Michael Dooher, from Walsall, West Midlands, became the latest victim of the multi-racial experiment that has gone horribly wrong, with disastrous consequences for Whites living in Britain.

Successive governments have both encouraged and justified mass immigration into Britain from the third world by assuring Britons that the new immigrants "would benefit this country with their culture of hard work and self discipline".

Today, Michael Dooher's parents are grieving over the loss of a son beaten to death by a gang of Asian thugs.

Michael Dooher, aged 19. Beaten to death by Asian thugs, because he was White!

Michael, a 19 year old car mechanic, was walking with a 17 year old friend in Duke Street, Chase Terrace, near Lichfield, Staffs, when they were attacked by a gang of at least four Asian men carrying weapons.
The gang attacked both teenagers, beating them with iron bars. The 17 year old, who has not been named, received several injuries to his legs, but Michael, who had both of his arms bandaged following a workplace accident was unable to defend himself, and was declared dead on arrival at Walsall's Manor Hospital.
Four Asian men have been arrested, but to date only one has been charged. He is Mushtaq Khan, aged 25, of Yew Tree Road, Aston, Birmingham. Khan is the manager of a pizza shop in Chase Terrace, just yards from where the murder took place.

Michael Dooher is just the latest on a growing list of victims who have been sacrificed in the cause of multi-racialism.

This slaughter will continue until Britons have the foresight to elect a Nationalist government capable and determined enough to end this tragic experiment.

ASIANS DISRUPT RICHARD EVERITT MEMORIAL

A memorial service held at the spot where 15 year old Richard Everitt was stabbed to death by an Asian gang, in Somers Town, North London, last year was disrupted when a group of Asian youths spat at a group of mourners laying wreaths and flowers.
Some of the mourners chased the youths and one who was caught is believed to have been badly beaten.

Tony Blair's "NEW

"Reds, Queers, Thugs,

Despite the efforts of Tony Blair and others to convince the gullible British public that the "new Labour" party is fit to govern Britain, a closer look at Labour party officials and members reveals the true "hidden face of Labour". For despite promoting "law and order" and claiming that they are the party of "family values" and no longer the home of the "loony left", thieves thugs and "red skeletons" all continue to tumble out of Labour's wardrobe.

Labour's efforts to distance themselves from the "loony left" tag has even included abandoning the traditional singing of the Marxist anthem "The Red Flag" at the end of their annual conference. This has been replaced with the hymn "Jerusalem" (a hidden message there perhaps?), but one must look behind the glossy new image to see "the real face of the Labour party", a party still well represented by "reds, queers, thugs and thieves".

In the London Borough of Tower Hamlets, which Labour gained from the Liberals last May, the new council's first act was to allow local lesbian and homosexuals to use Victoria Park for a two day "gay pride" festival. Predictably locals were upset when the park was left littered with litter including hypodermic syringes and used condoms, and a bill of some £15,000 to clear up the mess!

Tower Hamlets also has a vacancy for a new councillor following the sudden resignation of Labour's John Ryan, a former "squatter" with a self-confessed drink problem. Councillor Ryan's decision to resign wasn't due to drink but, whilst engaged in an exercise to monitor prostitution in the area, he discovered his 46 year old wife, Gillian, was herself working as a prostitute!

Good-time girl Gillian Ryan.
"Whoring for Labour"

Athough this discovery undoubtably caused the Labour administration some embarrasment, there were obviously no hard feelings (no pun intended), as the council re-housed Mrs Ryan just five days after her husband threw her out. This despite there being a two year waiting list for housing in the borough.

Ex-Councillor Ryan now seems hopeful of a reconciliation with his wife, and has even suggested the Labour party adopt a policy of legalising brothels.

Labour Councillor John Ryan.
No wonder John wants to legalise brothels!

LOOK" Labour Party. Drugs and Terrorism".

Corby, Northants, Labour party must also be giving Tony Blair real nightmares as no less than FIVE Labour councillors have criminal convictions.
Constituency party chairman, Billy Latta, was found guilty of headbutting a woman, knocking out two of her teeth, whilst four other councillors share convictions for robbery, burglary, handling stolen goods, threatening behaviour, assault and affray.

With many law and order experts claiming most crime in Britain is drug-related, Tony Blair was "most embarrassed" when Clair Short, a member of Labour's front bench, let slip in an interview that she supported proposals to legalise the drug cannabis. A position also shared by other prominent Labour MP's such as Paul Flynn and Tony Banks.
Ron Campbell, the MP for Blyth, Northumberland, where 11 young people have died from drug overdoses in the last three years, also proposed that "rave drugs" such as Ecstacy and LSD should be sold openly to young people over the chemist counter.
Drug dealers vote "New Labour". It's the party for you!

Another embarrassment to Blair's "Labour for Law & Order" and "Labour for the Family" position, was the arrest of Charles Cavanagh, a Labour adviser on taxation policy. Mr Cavanagh is alleged to have had at his home over 100 pornographic videos, many of them featuring young children in disgusting sex acts with adults. So much for Labour's "family values"

Charles Cavanagh.

Prospective parliamentary candidates also tend to "give the game away" for Labour. In the East London constituency of Bow, Jim Fitzpatrick is the favoured candidate to take over from veteran socialist Mildred Gordon. Bow residents should make a point of asking Jim about his time as a leading member of the SWP!

In Exeter "new Labour" have chosen South African-born John Lloyd as their candidate. Lloyd, also known as "Mad Dog" by his friends, admitted recently that whilst living in South Africa he was a part of " a small underground group that bombed electricity pylons and radio stations". Lloyd's terrorist group were also responsible for the bombing of a railway station in Johannesburg in which one person died.
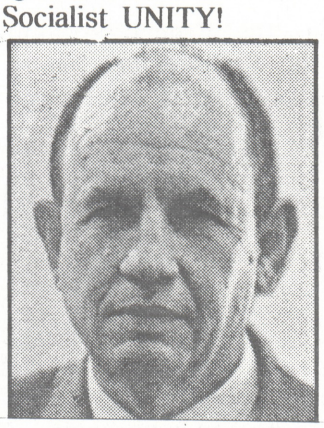
Typical Socialist UNITY!



John "Bomber" Lloyd
prospective Labour candidate.

Another new recruit to Tony Blair's "new Labour" is the former Tory MP for Hexham, near Newcastle, Alan Amos.
Forty-two year old Mr Amos resigned from the Tories after he was caught committing an indecent act with another man on London's Hampstead Heath.

This is the REAL face of "New Labour", and it is up to all Nationalists to make sure the British public are aware of the TRUTH!

FLEMISH NATIONALISTS GENERAL ELECTION SHOCK

The Flemish Nationalist party, Vlaams Blok, shocked the Belgian establishment by polling 12.5% of the votes in the recent General election. As expected, their support was strongest in Flanders but they did manage to poll almost 8% nationally.

The National vote was 2% up on the general election of 1991 and according to VB spokesman, Fillip De Winter, "the result showed a satisfactory growth in support".
Voting patterns tended to follow those spearheaded in last years municipal elections in which Vlaams Blok polled 15% in Flanders.
Antwerp, Belgium's second largest city, is now firmly regarded as a Vlaams Blok stronghold. The VB are the largest party in the city, and increased its vote from 25.5% in 1991, to 27% in this election. In last years municipal elections Vlaams Blok took control of the city for the first time, polling just over 30% of the vote.

VLAAMS BLOK

In Wallonia, the French speaking area of Belgium, the Wallonian Front National, doubled it's regional vote of 1991 but failed to match the increase nationally.

Nationalists united in Dixmuide protest.

The annual gathering by Nationalists from all parts of Europe, held annually in the small Flemish town of Dixmuide, was again marred by repressive measures adopted by Belgian State authorities.
Veteran Flemish Nationalist leader, Albert Eriksson, who has suffered constant harassment from the Belgian State ever since he founded the now banned Vlaams Militant Order, (VMO), was again a victim of State violence when the police attacked him whilst he was having a quiet drink with nationalist comrades. Mr Eriksson, despite his advanced age, defended himself vigorously, and was eventually dragged into a police van by para-military riot police.
This prompted a unified nationalist force of over 500 people to march to the local police station where a serious and sometimes violent effort was made to free comrade Eriksson. The State police and riot trained para-militaries utilized water cannon and tear gas to disperse the protestors.
Despite the hostile police presence, successful contacts were made with comrades from Germany's Viking Youth, NPD and FAP, as well as Dutch comrades from the Nationale Volkspartij/ CP 86, and French comrades from the PNFE.
Most Nationalists supported the boycott of the main ceremony in the arena which had been requested by the host Flemish Nationalist party, Vlaams Blok, who were protesting against the event organizers plans to defile the sacred ground within the arena by inviting religious leaders from the Muslim and Jewish communities to address the Flemish pilgrims.

Germany

Reinhold Elstener, a 75 year old former Wehrmacht soldier, committed suicide just days before Germany was due to "celebrate" VE Day as a day of "liberation", by soaking himself in petrol, and then igniting it as a protest against the continued vilification of German ex-soldiers by both his own government and other western countries.
The location of Mr Elstner's suicide, the Feldherrnhalle, is particularly relevant to his final protest. It was the site of the Putsch" of the 9th of November 1923, where 16 National Socialists laid down their lives for their Race and Nation.
In a suicide note, Mr Elstner wrote that "he was protesting about 50 years of never ending defamation, ugly lies and the demonization of the entire German people", and explained that his sacrifice "would not be in vain if through my death even one German was awakened".

Hans Schmidt arrested in Germany.

68 year old Hans Schmidt, a US citizen, has been arrested whilst on a private medical visit to Germany. Mr Schmidt, the editor of the Florida, USA, based "German-American National Political Action Committee, (GANPAC) magazine was arrested in Frankfurt, and has been charged with "inciting racial hatred".
The GANPAC committee have announced their intention of fighting the charges and are appealing for donations.

Gerhard Lauck, a US citizen, and editor of "The New Order" has been extradited from Denmark where he was arrested earlier this year and now looks likely to stand trial in the German city of Hamburg, accused of supplying holocaust denial material. Such material is banned in the "new democratic Germany".

Canada

Historical revisionist, Ernst Zundel, narrowly escaped death recently when he decided not to open a package that turned out to be a bomb.
According to Mr Zundel the package was "considerably heavier than a book shipment I was expecting, and it rattled when shaken". Mr Zundel took the package to the local police, who discovered that it contained a metal pipe packed with dynamite and nails.
Mr Zundel has been the victim of many attacks on his person and property, including an arson attack on his house just a couple of weeks prior to this latest outrage. Militant Jews are thought to be behind the attacks although to date no arrests have been made.
Mr Zundel is hated by "Holocaust enthusiasts" for exposing it as a "myth".

MOSLEY'S BLACKSHIRTS

Born to sacrifice all for Britain's sake!

Far too little has been written about Sir Oswald Mosley, the New Party, The British Union of Fascists and Union Movement. What little has been published has usually been produced by Mosley's political opponents and can therefore only be relied upon to be completely biased against the man and his policies. His opponents constantly try to portray him as a German orientated "traitor" when in fact he was an ardent, almost fanatical, British patriot. His love of the British people, "our Island race" is constantly displayed in his writings and speeches. In this article and others to follow, League Sentinel, seeks in some small way to redress the balance and educate our readers in the truth. The truth about the man, his policies and his followers. Our thanks to the Friends of Oswald Mosley for supplying most of this information through their journal, COMRADE.

"We ask all those who join us to march with us in a great and hazardous adventure. We ask them to be prepared to sacrifice all,"

It was with these words that Sir Oswald Mosley warned prospective members of the British Union of Fascists, of the task ahead and hazardous the adventure certainly was!
From its foundation on October 1st, 1932, the new movement faced violence from Communist and Socialist mobs attempting to wreck its meetings and drive it off the streets into political oblivion which, to a large extent they had done to Mosley's short-lived New Party.
Mosley realised from that experience that if his voice and the policies of the newly-formed BUF were to be heard, its meetings would have to be physically defended and thus the "Blackshirts" were formed.
This disciplined group of blackshirted active members fought back. They not only withstood the most savage assaults, frequently from a variety of weapons, but took Mosley's message and the Union Jack into large areas of the country where for years it had been banished in favour of the Communist/Socialist Red Flag.
Within weeks of its launch, and although yet without its own propaganda paper, the "Blackshirts" were already being taken seriously by the established parties. Before 12 months was up, a paper, The Blackshirt" was being sold on the streets, and reported that "the new movement had made the most rapid progress any new movement had ever made in British politics, despite lacking money and every material source" and "an expenditure so small that the achievement was beyond the comprehension of the old parties".

The movement had been built "from nothing with our bare hands. Not money but human flesh and blood and the undaunted spirit of our young manhood...
Blessed has been the poverty and the struggle of our early days, for our foundation rests upon the solid rock of sacrifice. Those who joined us came to give and not to take, for we had nothing to give them. The adventurers who float in and out of new movements could find no rewards, for they did not exist. Only those inspired by a passionate enthusiasm for an epic cause remained with us to build the strength of the present day, because we had nothing to offer anyone but the call to sacrifice.
Such men as these have built this movement in challenge to all material things. Against us were arrayed the whole power of the press, the strength of the old party machines and the weight of moneybags; We have smashed through them all!

We have brought to Britain something more than a new economic plan and a new conception of government. We have brought to Britain a new spirit of manhood and of national revival. Our grim and determined ranks of ex-servicemen, a hundred times betrayed, have joined hands with the new youth which is dedicated to make an end of folly and decadence. Together they have brought back the soul to the land for which our friends and companions died".

"the Blackshirts have carried on a long "trench-warfare" the full story of which may one day be told in all the heroism of its unrecorded incidents" wrote James Drennan in his "BUF: Oswald Mosley and British Fascism in 1934"

It was also the year of the Daily Mail's now famous front page headline "Hurrah for the Blackshirts" which heralded the six-month support of the Rothermere Press, its object to change the BUF into an active wing of the Conservative Party.

Lord Rothermere withdrew his press support when Mosley refused to contemplate any such change. It has also been said that Rothermere was pressured and blackmailed into withdrawing his support by large Jewish advertisers who had threatened a boycott of the paper.

From then onwards Mosley and his supporters were subject to a secret agreement of total censorship in the national press, except when red violence erupted at large demonstrations. (Nothing has changed).

This unprecedented media ban on Mosley, admitted after the war by former editor Frank Owen, led early post war writers to believe that in its last years the BUF had "withered away" when in actual fact it had grown in strength.

In 1936, using the Cable Street riot as a pretence, the government banned "political uniforms" which they hoped would destroy the Movement. The effect was the opposite. The BUF became more of a "mass-movement", especially in the East End of London.

Another change made for the sake of brevity was the shortening of the Party's name from "The British Union of Fascists and National Socialists" to simply "British Union".

It is often suggested by political opponents that the BUF/British Union was in some way an "imitation" of Fascist and National Socialist movements on the continent. But, in fact, out of British Union emerged an ethos of its own, a development still not yet understood by contemporary historians.

Arising out of history, national character and temperament, there had been from the start much difference between the BUF and Italian Fascism and German National Socialism and as British Union developed there emerged a philosophy and "gut feeling" which probably had its source in England's past, and had little to do with the "Fascist" revolt against the old corrupt democratic systems that was sweeping Europe at that time.

By 1940 the Movement had grown to such a strength that a hypocritical government used its wartime emergency powers to proscribe it on the fraudulent "suggestion" that its members were potential traitors. In reality, the reason was because of its growing influence and its perfectly legal opposition to the war!

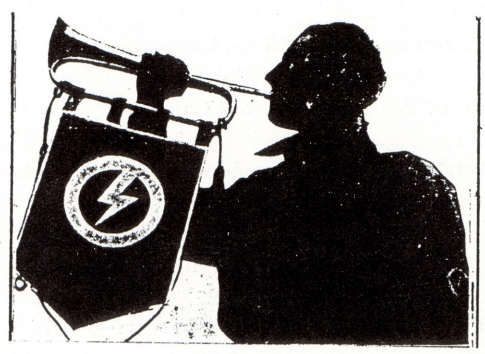
The philosophy of British Union cannot adequately be described. For its members, its meaning was within its title and was total! A complete unity of past, present and future; of young and old; labourer and artisan, plebian and aristocrat, men and women, man and nature, and above all, a real and true union of the British people that would make all things possible.

The young Mosleyite of the late 1930's could no longer wear the black shirt but the spirit of the early days was ever present.

He took his stance, planted his flag and announced to the world: "This is my belief and here I stand. I hope you will join me, but if you wish to fight me, so be it!

He loved life but had no illusions about the sacrifice that might lay ahead.

And he was willing to make it!



The Spirit Lives...The Rest Will Follow..

Searchlight Infiltrator. New evidence available.

Following the exposure by Leeds BNP of an agent provocateur, Tony White, who attempted to incite Leeds Nationalists into attacking members of the SWP and ANL, whilst secretly working for AFA and Searchlight, Leeds BNP have now released a transcript of a secretly taped telephone conversation with White.

Copies of the transcript are available from League Enterprises, 27, Old Gloucester St, London. WC1N 3XX. Please enclosed two first class stamps.

The booklet, "White Lies" is a detailed report of White's activities and motives, and can be obtained from Leeds BNP.

The booklet is priced at £.3.50 per copy. Payment MUST be made via a blank postal order. The postal address is: PO Box BR10, Bramley, Leeds. 13.

"Jewish law of revenge" finds first victim.

Mr Szymon Serafimowicz, an 84 year old British citizen, is the first victim to face charges under Britain's new War Crimes Act since its introduction last year.

The act, dubbed by many as "the Jewish law of revenge" was introduced by the Tory government following demands by the Board of Deputies of British Jews.

Mr Serafimowicz is charged with four counts of murdering Jews in 1941, near his home in the former Soviet Union. Mr Serafinowicz has denied all charges.

Despite the alleged incidents having taken place over 54 years ago "eye witnesses" are expected to be able to give "positive evidence" in the case.

London

Two London men falsely accused by the family of Steven Lawrence of involvement in his murder, are now threatening to sue the family for malicious prosecution.

Steven Lawrence, an 18 year old black student, was stabbed to death following a fight with some White youths in April 1993. Five youths were originally charged with the killing but the case was dropped by the Crown Prosecution Service because of insufficient evidence.

The two 18 year olds, James Acourt and Dave Norris, have now been acquitted for the second time and are to have discussions with a solicitor, with a view to suing the Lawrence family and their financial supporters.

Schoolchildren are being "brainwashed" with Anne Frank and the Holocaust.

Junior school pupils are being forced to study holocaust propaganda, including the Anne Frank diary, a publication which has been denounced as "fictional" by the highly respected Institute for Historical Revision.

As part of their Holocaust studies, schools receive a visit and lecture by members of the Anne Frank Educational Trust, an organisation not noted for openmindedness when discussing the authenticity of the Anne Frank diary, or specific details about the alleged holocaust.

RSPCA STANDS FIRM AGAINST JEWISH RITUAL SLAUGHTER.

Britain's most prominent animal welfare organisation, the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, (RSPCA), is to continue to oppose the slaughter of animals that have not been pre-stunned, despite pressure from Jewish religious authorities.

Jewish religious leaders demanded a meeting with RSPCA officials following the recent publication of a booklet by the animal welfare charity describing shechitah (the ritual slaughter of animals without pre-stunning) as unnecessarily painful and distressing. The RSPCA also maintain that in the light of new scientific knowledge available Jewish religious traditions should be changed.

Jewish religious leaders complained that if the RSPCA continued with its campaign of insisting animals be pre-stunned before slaughter, then Jewish shechitah would be outlawed in Britain.

A RSPCA spokeswoman told League Sentinel "the shechitah method of slaughter is barbaric and unnecessary. It's not mentioned in the Bible and we question the religious history of the whole subject.

Muslim religious leaders have agreed to change their Halal methods of slaughter to included pre-stunning and now it is only the Jews that still continue the horrific practice. We shall continue to campaign until Jewish ritual slaughter is banned in all civilised countries".

Donations to the RSPCA can be made direct to their headquarters at.. RSPCA, Horsham, Sussex.

Nationalist Animal Welfare Group Founded.

The recent murder of Israeli Prime Minister, Yitzhak Rabin, brought World leaders, including the British Prime Minister, John Major, and opposition leader, Tony Blair, flocking to pay their respects to a man the Zionist controlled media promoted as "a champion of peace".

Such is the hypocrisy of British establishment politics today and those involved in it, that the present Prime Minister and the man most likely to succeed him, could both bow in homage to the memory of a self-confessed terrorist who helped to murder British soldiers trying to keep the peace in Palestine.

The late and, to many ex soldiers who had served in Palestine, the unlamented Yitzak Rabin finally received the fate he so richly deserved.

Rabin, who was born in Jerusalem in 1922, served in the British Army during the Second World War, fighting in Syria against French soldiers supporting the Nationalist Vichy regime.

After the war, Rabin displayed his truly treacherous nature by turning against his British wartime comrades and joining the Zionist terrorist group, the Haganah.

Within this secretive terrorist group was a hard core of dedicated fanatics, known as the Palmach (strike force) and it was this group that recognised the young Rabin had the necessary ruthlessness and viciousness to become a dedicated terrorist.

The Palmach targeted British soldiers and showed no mercy. On the 1st of July 1946 a plan to bomb the British Army GHQ, based in Jersualem's King David Hotel, was approved by Palmach's commanders.

Over 500 lbs of explosives were put into milk churns and hidden in the basement of the hotel. The explosion destroyed one entire wing of the building, killing and wounding over 200 people, soldiers and civilians. Among the victims were fifteen Jewish civilians, deliberately sacrificed by Rabin and his terrorist gang.

In December 1946, four British soldiers, one Major and three NCO's, were kidnapped by the terrorists and whipped until they nearly died.

Just a few months later, in July 1947, the Zionist terrorists committed their most heinous crime when they captured two British Army sergeants, Clifford Martin and Mervyn Paice. After first torturing them, the Zionists then hanged the unarmed men from trees in an olive grove. The soldiers bodies were then booby trapped in an effort to desecrate the corpses and in an effort to kill even more British soldiers.

We wonder if John Major, Tony Blair and the other British gentile puppets gave a thought to Sgt's Martin and Paice as they paid homage to the evil life of Yitzach Rabin? We wonder if the words, King David Hotel, meant anything to them.

Our Day Of Remembrance.

Away from the Official Remembrance day on November 11th, British and Spanish Nationalists both hold their own special remembrance gatherings in November, on days very special to the Nationalist cause.

BRITAIN.

November 16th 1896 was the birthdate of perhaps the greatest Englishman ever to have lived and over 100 Nationalists attended the event.
Mosley's former bodyguard, Dan Harmston, still an imposing figure, gave an excellent speech and reminded the guests of Sir Oswald's commitment to Britain's future, made in July 1939, just months before our Nation again descended into War.

"To the dead heroes of Britain in sacred union we say - Like you we give ourselves to England; across the ages that devide us - across the glories of Britain that unite us - we gaze into your eyes and we give you this holy vow: We will be true - today, tomorrow and forever. England Lives!".

SPAIN.

An estimated 7000 Spanish Nationalists attended a memorial rally, organised to commemorate the 20th anniversary of the death of Spanish Nationalist leader, General Francisco Franco. The rally, held in Madrid, was a pleasing balance of old Civil War veterans, the genuine "freedom fighters" who fought and defeated the forces of communism, and young people, many of whom were not even born when Franco was in power.
The joint organisers, Ricardo Saenz de Ynesrillas, of the Alliance for National Unity, and Eduardo Toledo, leader of the Nationalist Civil War Veterans Federation, both criticised the decadence, crime and lack of National pride that had descended on Spain following the death of Franco.
The yellow and red national colours of Spain were well in evidence at the rally and a significant proportion of the crowd were dressed in the dark Blue shirts and Red berets of the old Falange movement that had supported Franco through his struggle.
Perhaps the most inspiring moment was when the entire crowd faced Madrid's one remaining statue of the Nationalist leader, gave the traditional European salute and sang the Civil War Nationalist battle hymn, Cara al Sol (Face to the Sun).
Official from various European Nationalist Movements were introduced to the cheering crowd, especially those from Germany, Flanders, Holland, France and Italy.

After the rally it was revealed that police had tried to persuade the organisers to cancel the event as they feared "anti-fascists" would try to disrupt it. One "anti-fascist" had been critically injured on the eve of the rally, when a bomb that he had been preparing to detonate at the rally exploded prematurely.
